Transnational elite fascism

Since March 2020, the form of rule that has been systematically unfolding since the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989/1990 has been fully visible: a transnationally operating oligarchic caste has taken over rule in the Western "democracies".
by Ullrich Mies

The mass basis of "traditional" fascism was the enthusiastic petty bourgeoisie, incited by propaganda (1). The leader (state) promised the masses salvation from all evils. The leader carried the masses, the masses carried the leader (state) and the latter led them into war and ruin in the interest of (monopoly) capital. In the course of the last decades, a transnational, well-connected caste has emerged, which no longer just conducts its wars externally, but has recognized civil societies as a whole as a threat to its power. Since March 2020, the centres of power have expanded their war inwards in the name of the corona infection regime.

By transnational "elite" fascism I mean an alliance of transnational capitalist class, transnational power elite (Transnational Capitalist Class and Transnational Power Elite) (2) with the transnational digital, military, intelligence, science and media complex and the governments as their executive committees. I refer to this conglomerate as the parasites of the civil societies that serve as their "host bodies".

Their new means of domination is a health dictatorship based on infection regimes that can be activated at any time. Today Covid-19, tomorrow rhinoviruses, the day after tomorrow perhaps malaria or a "biological warfare" attack.

The never-ending "war on terror" has been extended to include the "war on infection" since March 2020. This is directed against humanity as a whole.

The "great concern" of the centres of power for "public health" is an unprecedented propagandistic masterpiece in the history of mankind. It is a PSYOP prepared for years, a psychological warfare against civil societies.

After decades of mistakes by the ruling cliques, the legitimacy of Western politics was at zero by the end of 2019. And those who have ruined the planet, humanity, coexistence, inner and outer peace and all positive values of human history are now to be the great saviours of humanity?

How ahistorical, unsuspecting, naive and brainwashed by the media does one have to be to relieve the drivers of globalised disaster capitalism and the perpetrators of the disaster that has been wrought of the great concern for the health of the people?

State of emergency as a permanent state
The "mass base" of the centres of power is no longer the following of convinced people. Their new followers are the masses of manipulated, lied to and terrorized people in a state of fear and panic. The media mass dumbing down secures the fear-based entourage.

Jeffrey A. Tucker of the American Institute for Economic Research writes in his article "When will the Madness end?" about this:

"I am a practicing psychiatrist specializing in anxiety disorders, paranoid delusions and irrational fear. I have treated these in individuals as a specialist. It's hard enough to contain these problems in normal times. What is happening now is a spread of this serious health condition to the entire population. It can happen to anything, but here we see how a primal fear of disease turns into mass panic. It seems almost deliberate. It's tragic. Once this has begun, it could take years to repair the psychological damage" (3).

In addition, the mask compulsion is supposed to practice obedience and subservience, to ensure the "cohesion" of the mask wearers and their submission to supposed authorities, and to outlaw the "mask enemies" as "non-solidary dangerers". At present, the perpetrators are terrorising our children in the schools by forcing them to wear masks. This is where the new subject is bred.

The means of domination of the centres of power is the "infection" state of emergency with the exclusion of civil rights. The Merkel clique and their entourage have cold-cleaned the Basic Law. From now on, the state of emergency can be declared a permanent state at any time. Even "democracy" in its deficient form of party democracy is suspended by the Covid state of emergency, the separation of powers has largely collapsed. Bill Gates and his scientific and political collaborators do not want us to ever return to the state of the pre-Covid 19 era (4).

Democracy as we knew it belongs to the past. Bernd Hamm wrote about this already in 2017:

"Neoliberal ideology has helped to reduce state regulation and accumulate wealth at 1 percent. The rich are able to influence a considerable part of state legislation in their favour. They and their wealth are advised and protected in their services by hosts of parliamentarians, managers, accountants, lawyers, tax consultants, think tanks, radio stations, film studios, publishers, media, researchers, hacks, lobbyists, bodyguards and other lackeys.

Private property is the golden calf of capitalism and unregulated capitalism is the bible of the ruling class. They can even mobilize the police and military on their behalf. The nation state and its government remain important institutions for this - but above all, governments must keep the masses under control. This is the end of the democracy project and the final takeover by the plutocracy, a silent coup d'état" (5).

Traditional fascism combined mass support and propaganda with hard-hitting (street) terror and hall battles against its enemies. In contrast, transnational "elite" fascism proceeds much more subtly and intelligently. As the German variant of transnational "elite" fascism, Merkel clique, the neo-liberal party unit and media front, as well as the externally funded prostituted science (6) try to push through their position and maintain their power with all means of propaganda, censorship, the dismantling of any opposition and the suppression of "deviators".

World Economy Reset

The centres of power intend to enforce several lockdowns in order to achieve their goals.

Ultimately, they aim to reset the world economy (7). They want to "rebuild" the "old" globalized disaster capitalism that brought the planet to the brink of collapse. The fundamental goal, however, is to maintain the capitalist system under the newly created conditions of the 4th industrial revolution after the great reset. The states are to be completely subjected to the control of the international financial industry.

Before the Corona crisis Germany had national debts of about 2 trillion Euro. It took Germany 75 years to accumulate these. It took the Merkel team 3 months to double this national debt.

The Deutsche Bank wrote about the consequential damages of the Corona crisis on April 24, 2020:

"According to our calculations, the German state can fall back on a staggering sum of up to 1.9 trillion euros, well over 50 percent of German GDP, via the anti-crisis packages that have been launched [...]" (8).

Deutsche Welle wrote on 24 June 2020

"At least 15 trillion dollars [...] have already been earmarked by governments and central banks to combat the corona pandemic and its consequences. This is causing the world's mountain of debt to grow ever faster: including the debts of companies and banks, the banking lobby association IIF (Institute of International Finance) comes to an unimaginable 250 trillion dollars" (9).

In June 2020, the World Bank offered Belarus a loan of 940 million dollars on condition that the country agreed to a lockdown, i.e. the ruin of its economy (10).

The centres of power are seeking to privatise the remaining state property under the control of the international financial industry through the total indebtedness of the states. Bankrupt companies, which have been driven to the brink of insolvency by the Corona crisis, are then taken by the radical market governments under state ownership in order to force the taxpayer to bear the costs of their restructuring. The total indebtedness of states is a means of enslaving humanity (11).

In Europe, the EU is the decisive control centre for the de-democratisation of nation states. The ruling economic and political cliques do everything in their power to maintain the faltering EU as their power project, to completely undermine the democratic institutions of the nation states and to further disempower the parliaments. The 27 EU states have just agreed a budget and financial package in the historic order of 1.8 trillion euros.

It is already clear that the money will end up primarily, as with the earlier aid to Greece, in banks to refinance old debts (12). Democracy-free commissions, directorates, senates, stakeholder agreements and backroom committees of all kinds ensure the totalitarian rule of the transnational oligarch caste. The nation state serves them alone as a surveillance and repressive state to keep the populations under control.

Population Reduction

Global population reduction is an integral part of the great global economic reset. For the 4th industrial revolution billions of people are "superfluous" (13). The "cleansing" of the world population will take place through the creeping destruction of small and medium-sized businesses and the worldwide supply chains with hundreds of millions of employees. The part of the small and medium-sized businesses that can be "exploited" by the international investment strategists will be squeezed out of self-employment and into the dependent low-wage sector, others will be subjected to digital and platform corporations and their exploitation strategies, and large parts will go under, as the domination strategists intended.

According to the International Labour Organisation, the first lockdown has already left 1.6 billion people in the so-called informal sector unemployed, i.e. people without regular employment relationships.

The question is: "How many hundreds of millions of people will lose their lives due to the economic destruction of existence?"

The centers of power go smiling over millions of corpses. They have proved this sufficiently by their wars alone after 1989. World Wars I and II claimed more than 100 million lives. If "only" 10 percent of the 1.6 billion would die as a result of the targeted economic destruction of existence, that would be 160 million people (14). But there will certainly be more!

Whether the centres of power and their figurehead Bill Gates on vaccination regimes also aim at a reduction of the world population may be a matter for speculation (15). Bill and Mellinda Gates act as the great saviours of humanity through vaccination regimes (16). They are definitely not saviours of humanity! All that matters is new gigantic business models for Big-Pharma, Big-Money and Big-Government, which are staged with all means of propaganda and repression.

"Vaccines are for Bill Gates a 'strategic philanthropy' that supplies his numerous vaccine businesses and gives him dictatorial control over global health policy" (17).

The 4th Industrial Revolution
The objectives of the 4th Industrial Revolution (18) are the abolition of all democracy,

a new geopolitical order, 5G (19) and related satellite technology. 5G is primarily a technology for the military to conduct wars on completely new bases. 5G is installed and the consequences for man and nature are completely ignored, the Internet of Things (20), this is about technologies of a global infrastructure of information societies, a cashless world (21), the establishment of a cold social life of social distance and total biometric control a compulsory vaccination regime using genetic engineering and nanotechnology, with the pharmaceutical companies being relieved of any liability, the expansion of artificial intelligence in conjunction with post- and transhumanism, i.e. the fusion of man and machine (22), the development of 'smart cities' (23).
In summary, it can be said that the transnational "elite" fascists are striving for a New World Order of dictatorial global governance.

After the great reset (24) the remaining world population is to live in a new world. The centers of power are doing everything possible to ensure that after the transition to the 4th industrial revolution their New World Order will be irreversible.

Demands for a New Beginning
Since the centers of power are rebuilding the world unrestrainedly, the resistance is allowed to think about how humanity, in particular in the western facade democracies, could find its way out of the current morass. Here are some thoughts on this:

The dissolution of political parties in their present form and function,
Resolution of corrupting lobby complexes,
Dissolution of the secret services, at least their massive reduction,
Reduction of the military to national defence,
Abolition of politician's immunity,
Confiscation of party assets or political assets in the event of proven breaches of the constitution, breaches of law and damage to the general public,
Responsibility through genuine assumption of responsibility, i.e. political liability,
Penalty for breaking oaths of office,
Convene constitutional assemblies, strengthening direct democracy,
Completely new conception of the media, i.e. placing them under popular democratic control, a new generation of politicians must have proven their worth "in life", must comply with ethical-moral principles, constitutional and legal compliance and be accountable for this before taking up public office.
This would be a very first beginning.
